QUOTATIONS

From their own WORKS.

By which it appears, That those DIVINES never held such a Subordination of the SON of GOD, as is now pleaded for in EXON; as tho' the Son were a Subordinate Being, or a Subordinate GOD to the FATHER; but that when they mention'd any thing of the Subordination of the Son, it was only a Relative Subordination, in the same Being or Godhead; and that they believed the FATHER, SON, and HOLY GHOST, to be the one Supream GOD.

dix; being an Answer to Mr
Hallet's Letter.

Booksellers in EXON.

DECEIVERS, &c.

Hereas a Paper was drawn up some Months since, on purpose to delude, deceive, and amuse the People, as if many Divines of the greatest Note in the Establish'd Church, as also among the Dissenters, held the Subordination of the Son of God, in the same Sense as those now do that are charged with Arianism, hereby insinuating, that these Gentlemen held, That the Son was a Being distinct from the Father, and Subordinate to him: And one of these Papers having been left by Mr. Isaac Gilling, with a Gentlewoman of this City. To wipe off this Aspersions from these great Men, and prevent the People's being imposed on, it's thought fit to publish the following Passages, by which it appears, that however these Divines have express'd their Notions of the Eternal Generation of the Son of God, yet they all of them held the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost to be the one God. It this Paper has been communicated to Mr. Hallet, we desire to know, if he thinks in his Conscience, these Divines believed the Subordination of the Son of God, in the same Sense with Mr. Pierce and his Followers: And if not, with what Face can it be handed about to perswade the World they did? We would farther ask these Gentlemen, who have boasted so much of their Adherence to Scripture, how they come now to appeal to Human Determinations, upon Suppositions, that the Persons referr'd to, had held the Subordination of the Son to the Father, in the same Sense with themselves: Which that they did not, the following Quotations will plainly demonstrate.

Dr Wake. Arch-Bishop, in his Catechism, Pag. 38.

Q  O you then look on Christ to have the same Divine Nature with the Father, and so to have been from all Eternity, God together with him?

A. If I believe the Scriptures to give a true Account of the Nature of Christ, so I must believe; for I find the same Evidences in them of the Godhead of Christ, that I do of that of the Father.

Pag. 59. Q But did not you before say, that there is but one God; and how do you say the Father is God, the Son is God, and the Holy Ghost is God?

A That there is but one God, the Holy Scriptures plainly declare, and even Reason it self confirms to us; and yet the same Scriptures as plainly declare every one of these three to be God;

God ; and the only way we know of reconciling these two seeming contrary Assertions, is to say, that these three are of one and the same Divine Nature, communicated from the Father to the Son, and from both to the Holy Ghost, and that therefore they together make but one God.

Q. How can three distinct Persons so partake of the one Divine Nature or Essence, as all together to make but one God ?

A. That is not my Concern to explain : This I am sure, that if the Scriptures be (as we allow they are) the Word of God, what they plainly deliver must be true, because it is in Effect delivered by God himself, who can neither be himself deceived, nor will deceive me : Now, that they deliver both these Propositions to me, that the Father is God, the Son is God, and that the Holy Ghost is God, and yet that there are not three Gods, but one God, I am as sure as I can be of any thing spoken or written for my Understanding.

Arch-Bishop Tillotson says, Folio Edition, Vol. the First, Page 574. The Scriptures do deliver the Doctrine of the Trinity without any manner of Doubt or Question, concerning the Unity of the Divine Nature ; and not only so, but do most stedfastly and constant assert, that there is but one God ; and in this very Text in which these three Differences are mention'd the Unity of the Divine Nature is expressly asserted, as where St. John makes mention of the Father, the Word, and the Spirit, the Unity of the three is likewise asserted, There are Three that bear Record in Heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Spirit; and these Three are one.

It's

It's yet farther considerable, that from this Mystery as deliver'd in Scripture, a Plurality of Gods can't be inferr'd, without making the Scripture grossly to contradict it self, which I charitably suppose the Socinians will be as loath to admit, as we our selves are : And if either Councils, or Fathers, or Schooll-men, have so explain'd the Mystery, as to give any just Ground, or so much as a plausible Colour for such an Inference, let the Blame fall where it is due ; and let it not be charged on the Holy Scriptures, but rather, as the Apostle says in another Case, Let God be true, and every Man a Liar.

Bishop Bull, in his Account of the Faith of the Three First Centuries, says, Since the Word is in the Father, and the Word of the Father, he is one God with the Father, pag. 21. And concludes with this Doxology, To the most Holy and Undivided Trinity, viz. God the Father, and his Co-essential and Co-eternal Word and Son, incarnated for our Salvation, together with the Holy Spirit, the Paraclet, be ascribed by Angels and Men, all Praise, Honour and Glory, World without End. Amen.

Bishop Peirson, in his Exposition on the Creed, says, Whatsoever Essence hath its Existence from another, is not God, pag. 24.

He who begetteth is God, and he which is begotten the same God, pag. 33.

In the Beginning was the Word, and the Word which so was in the Beginning, was with God, and the Word was God ; that is, the same God with whom the Word was in the Beginning ; but he could not be the same God with him any other Way than by having the same Divine
Tence :

Essence : Therefore the Being which Christ had before he was conceived of the Virgin, was the Divine Nature by which he was properly and really God, pag. 121.

As sure as Christ was really and essentially Man, of the same Nature with us, in whose Similitude he was made; so certainly also was he really and essentially God, of the same Nature and Being with him, in whose Form he did subsist, pag. 123.

Wherefore being Christ hath so immediately, and with so great Solemnity and Frequency, taken the same Stile upon him by which the Father did express his Godhead, it followeth that he hath declared himself to be the Supream, Almighty, and Eternal God, pag. 125.

Wherefore being we find in Scripture frequent Mention of one God, and besides that one, an Intimation of many Gods, and who-soever is called God, must either be that one, or one of those many, being we find our blessed Saviour to be wholly opposed to the many Gods, and consequently to be none of them and yet we read him often stiled God; it followeth, that that Name is attributed unto him in such a manner, as by it no other can be understood, but the one Almighty and Eternal God, pag. 126.

He is so called God, as not to be any of the many Gods, but the one Supream, or most High God, for he is God over all, p. 122.

So doth he speak of Christ in as sublime a Stile, who is over all God blessed for ever, Amen, and thereby doth testify the Equality or rather Identity of his Deity. Thus every way doth it appear the Apostle spake of Christ as of the one Eternal God, p. 133. He

He who being Man, is frequently called God, and that in all those ways by which the Supream Deity is express'd. He had a Being before Christ was conceived by the Virgin Mary; and the Being which he had, was the one Eternal and Indivisible Divine Essence, by which he always was truly, really and properly God, therefore the Being which Christ had before he was conceived of the Virgin, was not any created, but the Divine Essence; nor was he any Creature, but the true Eternal God, pag. 134.

All things whatsoever the Father hath, are mine, saith Christ, because in him is the Fulness of the Godhead, and more than that the Father can't have, pag. 134.

And being the Divine Nature, as it is absolutely immaterial and incorporeal, is also indivisible. Christ cannot have any part of it only communicated unto him, but the whole; by which he must be acknowledged Coessential, of the same Substance with the Father, p. 135.

In humane Generation, the Son is of the same Nature with the Father, and yet is not the same Man, but the Divine Essence, being, by Reason of its Simplicity, not subject to Division, and in respect of its Infinity, incapable of Multiplication: Is so communicated, as not to be multiplied; insomuch, that he who proceedeth by that Communication, hath not only the same Nature, but is also the same God; the Father God, and the Word God. Abraham Man, and Isaac Man; but Abraham one Man, Isaac another Man; not so the Father one God, and the Word another; but the Father and the Word both the same God, pag. 138.

That

That the Holy Ghost receiveth the same Essence from the Father which the Word receiveth, and thereby becometh the same God with the Father and the Word, pag. 141.

Bishop Hickman on Trinity-Sunday. The Doctrine of the Trinity, tho' hard to be understood, yet it is necessary to be believed; otherwise our Saviour would never have sent his Apostles about the World upon so needless, unaccountable an Errand, as to baptize all Nations in the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; who would be baptiz'd into they knew not what? Who would subscribe to such a senseless, blasphemous Form of Words as these Men represent it, which joineth the Father, who is God, with the Son, who is nothing but a Man, and the Holy Ghost, whom they knew nothing of. And yet upon these very Terms it was, that the whole Heathen World was to be admitted into the Christian Church; which is an undeniable Proof that they understood these Words, of Father, Son and Holy Ghost, as we now do, for Three Persons in one God, an Holy and undivided Trinity. And to make this more clear, we need only consider the State of Religion as it stood at that present time: The acknowledging more Gods than one, was the very Error from which the Heathens were to be reclaimed: But if Christianity had taught them there were Three Gods to be acknowledged, they had as good, in all Appearance of Reason, have kept to 300 more. 2 Vol. Sermon. p. 271, 272.

Bishop Burnet, in his Catechism, says, p. 44. As God, he came out from the Father, and is one God with the Father: And p. 69. Q. How can Three Persons be one God? A. They can't be both One and Three in the same Respects, but they are One and Three in different Respects. Tho' we can't comprehend how this is, yet we are bound to believe it, since it is very clearly delivered in the Scriptures.

Dr. Sherlock says, 'There is nothing more plain and express in Scripture, than the Faith of Father, Son and Holy Ghost, or the Doctrine of the Trinity in Unity. We all own with the Scripture, that there is but one God; but we say farther, as the Scripture teaches us, that there are three, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, each of which is true and perfect God. This they say is a Contradiction; and if it be so, there is an end of this Faith; for both Parts of a Contradiction can't be true, but to be Three and One upon different Accounts and in different Senses is no Contradiction; for thus Three may be One, and One Three; and this is all the Scripture teaches, or that we profess to believe whatever the Mystery of this Distinction and Unity be. But this will not satisfy these Philosophical Wits, unless they can comprehend how Father, Son and Holy Ghost, are really and distinctly Three, and essentially One, the Manner of which the Scripture gives no Account of, and therefore this is no Dispute in Faith, but only in Philosophy. Sherlock's Sermons on several Occasions, p. 278, 279, 280.

Dr. Owen says, Now the Sum of this Revelation in this Matter, is, that God is one; that this one God is Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Owen of the Trinity, p. 26. And speaking of Gospel Worship, says, the express Object of it is God, not as absolutely consider'd, but as existing in Three Persons, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Contin. Morning Exercise, p. 225.

Dr. Manton, speaking of Christ being sent, says, It implieth his distinct Subsistence that Christ is a distinct Person from the Father; for he that sendeth, and he that is sent, are distinguish'd; mark I say, it implieth Distinction, but not Inferiority against the Arians. Persons equal by mutual Consent, may send one another, as we see among Men. Now this sending is applied to the Father, partly because the Father in these Places is not taken personally but essentially; for the Decree of the Father is the Decree of the Son and Spirit; they are one in Essence and one in Will; their Actions are undivided, &c. 2 Vol. Fol. p. 40.

Baxter, in his familiar Way of Catechising, p. 130, 131. C. Are there more Gods than one? M. No: But in God there are three Persons, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. C. How can Three Persons be one God? M. As well as one Sun can have Heat, and Light, and Motion; for a Person in the Godhead is not like the Persons of Men, which are so many Substances divided from one another; but this is the greatest Mystery, which you must learn better hereafter, when you are riper and more capable. C. Hath God a Son? M. Yes; but not begotten as we Men are, by our Parents. C. How then? M. No Similitude can shew us clearly these great unsearchable Mysteries; but some may a little help us clearly to understand somewhat of them. Do you know how the Sun begets or causeth the Beams of Light? Or do you know how a Man begetteth or causeth his own Thoughts? This sheweth how God the Father begets his Son, which is called his Word and Wisdom from all Eternity : And then, when his Son or Word became a Man, that was another begetting. C. Was Christ begotten of his Father? M. Yes: The First was before all Time and Worlds from all Eternity. This is Christ Godhead, by which he and his Father are as truly one God, as the Sun and its Light are one Sun ; or a Man's Soul and his Understanding are one Soul.

Mr. Tross says, That there is a Priority of Order, tho' not of Time nor of Dignity, much less of Essence in the Trinity of Persons. When we approach the Deity in our Devotions, we ought to consider it as Three Persons in one Essence. When he came to speak to the last Clause of the 6th Answer in the Assembly's Catechism, he says, And thus far I have finish'd this great, necessary, fundamental Doctrine of the Trinity, as 'tis Orthodoxly described in this Paragraph ; for I need to say nothing of what follows, to wit, the same in Substance, Power, and Glory ; for having prov'd them to be each of them the most High, the Essential Deity, the Blessed Jehovah, the Father to be Jehovah, the Son to be Jehovah, and the Holy Ghost to be Jehovah, every one of the Three, and all the Three, to be the same Jehovah. We have proved that they are the same in Substance and Essence, in Power and Authority, in Glory and Worship ; and as such they must be acknowledged by us. Taken from his Sermon Notes on the Catechism, p.

Mr. Hughes, speaking of the Father's being the Supream Person in the Godhead, saith, Yet is he no more the Supream God than the Son Son or Spirit, supposing they derive from him by Necessity of Nature; because not one of them excluding of the rest, but including each other, are the Supreme God, and therefore thus consider'd, they are equally Supreme. Hughes Essay 2. Part 3. pag. 132.

Mr. Hou says, But we Christians are taught to conceive, under the Notion of God, a necessary Spiritual Being, in which Father, Son, and Spirit, do necessarily Co-exist, so as to constitute that Being; and that when we conceive any one of them to be God, that is but an inadequate, not an intire and full Conception of the Godhead. Hou's Calm Discourse, pag. 50.

Dr. Bales says, the Doctrine of the Trinity is not a meer speculative Truth, nor the Denial of it a speculative Error. The Trinity is not only an Object of Faith, but of Worship: In Baptism we are dedicated to the sacred Trinity, in the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; which clearly proves they are of the same Authority and Power, and consequently of the same Nature; for 'tis impossible to conceive of three Infinite Beings, for by Necessity one would limit another who can prove by irresistible Evidence, that God who is an Infinite Good, cannot by an Infinite Communication of himself, be in distinct Subsistences. 'Tis true our Reason may find unaccountable Difficulties, that One should be Three in the Subsistences of Persons, and Three One in Nature; but there can be no Proof that 'tis impossible, without a perfect understanding the Nature of God. Fol. pag. 594, 596.

Mr.

Mr. Corbet says, The Doctrine of the Trinity in the Unity of the Godhead, and of the Incarnation of the Eternal Word, is the Basis or Foundation of the Christian Religion.

Mr. Matthew Henry, in his Confession of Faith, mention'd in his Life, pag. 3. saith, I believe that the living and true God is but one God ; and that in the Unity of the Godhead there is a Trinity of Persons, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, and that these three are but one God, the same in Substance, equal in Power and Glory. This is a Reveal'd Mystery, which I do believe, but cannot comprehend.

These are the Quotations we present the World with, and now submit it to their Determination, whether these Eminent Divines (from whose Works they have been faithfully transcribed) could be supposed to maintain the Supremacy of God the Father, in such a Sense as to exclude the Son from being one and the same supream God with him. But this the Subordination now pleaded for, does making the Son a distinct Being from the Father, and inferiour to him in Perfections, Authority, &c. Witness the Answer to Mr. Trosse's Catechism, the Letter to the Dissenters, and Mr. Pierce's making the Father to be the one God, and his Declaration before the Committee, which was to this Effect, That he could not help it, if the Scripture made Christ such a God, as after the Day of Judgment must have no Rule, Authority, or Power. (See Account, Pag. 6.) And now we shall conclude with putting you in mind of the Apostle's Advice, Eph. 4. and 14th Verse, That we henceforth be no more Children tossed to and fro, and carried about with every Wind of Doctrine, by the Sleight of Men, and cunning Craftiness whereby they lie in wait to deceive.

POST-SCRIPT.

S Ince the sending of the above to the Press, the Substance of the Paper which was left by Mr. Gilling, with a Gentlewoman of this City, is published, with Mr. Hallet's Name to it. Therein are several of those Authors mentioned out of which our Collections have been made; to which Collections, we think fit to add these that follow.

The Continuators of Mr. Pool's Annotations on the 2d of Colossians, 9th Verse. For in him dwelleth all the Fullness of the Godhead. Then least Christ might (as by the Arians) be deemed a secondary God, or (as some since) a made God, inferior to the Father, He saith, The Fullness of the Godhead, which speaks him perfect and co-equal with the Father. Further, Connoting a numerical Sameness of Essence betwixt the Godhead of the Father and the Son, All the Fulness of the Godhead dwelleth in him. There is not one Fullness of the Father, and another of the Son, but one and the same singular Godhead in both.

And on the 28th of Matthew, 19th Verse. In the Authority, or (which is indeed the Chief) into the Profession of the Trinity of Persons, in the one Divine Being.

Mr. Burkit, in his Exposition on the 5th of John, 23d Verse. That such as pretend to Honour Christ, but deny him to be God equal with the Father, they will draw the highest Honour from him. And in this Chapter, he takes Notice of 3 Arguments that Christ produced to prove his Godhead and Equality with the Father. And on the 10th of John, 30. I and my Father are One. That is, one in Essence and Nature, one in Authority and Power. Learn hence, that the Lord Jesus Christ is for Nature Co-essential, for Dignity Co-equal, and for Duration Co-eternal with the Father.

Dr. Whitby's Annotations on Rom. 14. 6. says That the Father and Christ are equally God.

We might have taken several Passages out of Mr. Boyse, asserting the Son to be One, and the same God

God with the Father. But the whole Book being written to demonstrate that Truth, we refer the Reader to it.

Most of the others that are appealed to by Mr. Hallet, are Foreign Writers, who all agree in acknowledging the Truth pleaded for by us, and which has been refused to be assented to by Mr. Peirce, Mr. Hallet, and others. And now since it is evident that the Subordination which all those Authors quoted by us, did unanimously maintain, was thought by them no Ways opposite to the Doctrine of the Trinity of Persons in the Unity of the Godhead, Mr. Hallet's Appeal to them can be deemed no other than imposing on Mankind; and every observing Reader cannot but discern the Fallacy. We cannot therefore but wonder how Mr. Hallet can say, That the Subordination of all these Divines is the same with that which is contended for by them at present; yet that he does assert this, will appear from consulting Pages 4th, 14th, and 17th of his Book.

There are some things said in Mr. Hallet's Paper about Mr. Moor, which we think our selves no farther concerned in, than to desire the World to peruse his excellent Answer to the Letter to a Dissenter at Exon, that will convince them that he holds no other than a Relative Subordination.

We see nothing material in Mr. Hallet's Performance, which calls for any Remark, unless it be a gross Mistake, Page 20. where he suggests, that the Debates amongst us, have been about some nicer Speculations, relating to the Doctrine of the Trinity; For our Debate hath not been about nice Speculations relating to that Doctrine, but whether that sacred Mystery should be owned or denyed. That the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost are one God, is a Truth we think ourselves obliged to adhere to, as being delivered in the Scriptures; but which neither Mr. Hallet, nor Mr. Peirce, would declare their Assent to, when requested.

Mr. Matthew Huddy, The Lords Day, after the last Assembly, desired the People of Kings-Kerswell, to beware they did not give too much Honour to Jesus Christ.

And Mr. Hallet's Son demanded of a Person very lately What Place of Scripture he could produce, to prove that the Holy Ghost is God, asserting, that he knew of none.

FINIS.

Reverend Sir,

WE have seen your Letter, and find you are angry at our Title.

We appeal to the whole World, whether it doth not manifestly appear, That the Design of your Paper was to deceive, and make the World believe, that Mr. Peirce, and those who go under the Name of Arians, held no other Subordination than what the most approved Divines have held before them; and consequently that all our Uneasiness was frivolous and groundless: And could you expect that we should suffer our Case to be so unjustly represented to the World, and poor well-meaning People to be deceiv'd and drawn unawares into the most dangerous Errors, and we be silent? Sure you could not.

We only therefore, in our own Defence, and in Defence of the Truth laid before the World, the Subordination that was contended for by the new Party, and this you are pleas'd to call Slander and Gossiping Stories, tho' the Matters of Fact be of the greatest Importance, and exactly true, and such as you can not in the least disprove.

Whoever reads, The Innocent Vindicated: The Answer to Mr. Trols's Catechism: The Letter to a Dissenter in Exon: And, The Queries to Mr. Walrond: And the Expressions we have quoted of Mr. Peirce Mr. Huddy, and your Son, will see, that the Subordinatiis now asserted, is of a vastly different Nature from what was maintained by the Divines you quote ; the One making Christ and the Holy Ghost to be one God with the Father ; the other making the Father the One God, and Christ, as to his highest Nature, inferior to him, as to being Perfection and Worship, and calling in Question the Deity of the Holy Ghost, maintaining the Supremacy of the Father in such a Sense, as to exclude the Son and the Holy Ghost from being one and the same Supreme God with him.

You say, Page 30. There was no need you should have published your Pamphlet to prove that the same Authors held, that the three Divine Persons are one in Essence and Godhead. This was evidently suppos'd by me ; and it's apparent enough from several Citations I before made : But what Grounds have we to think that you suppose it ; have you given any Hint of this Nature ? In some of the Citations we grant, express Mention is made of this Doctrine ; but it doth not follow from hence, that you agree with them : And the contrary is evident to us, from what you declared to a Gentleman of undoubted Reputation, that to you it seemed a Contradiction for One to be Three, and Three to be One. And to another about Easter last, you declared you had been then in these new Notions about Twelve Months. And we can't but take Notice of the Practice of several of your Pupils who were at your House at the breaking up of your Academy, that had, after the Example of your Son Mr. Jos. Hallet, struck out the 1 John 5. 7. out of their Bibles. And here we would observe, That tho' you have endeavour'd to persuade the World that your Son did this when he was but a Youth ; yet he was seen to do it since he himself Preach'd.

We know not who those Persons are who censure such as Hereticks who maintain any kind of Subordination. You know, as well as we, had you and Mr. Peirce declared that you held no other Subordination than those Divines produc'd by you ; and that you also, with them, believed the Father, Son and Holy Ghost to be the one God, our unhappy
Breach

Breach had been prevented ; and who then can believe you intend no other now, whatever you say. Your calling the Peoples insisting on Satisfaction as to the Soundness of your Faith a usurping an Authority, and composing of Creeds, &c. we look upon to be meer Shuffle, and what hath been reply'd to again and again. In the Peoples Account of the Reasons of your Ejection, &c. And we can't think your insisting on declaring your Faith in Words of Scripture only, to proceed from any Thing, but that you are ashamed or afraid to own the Sense you put upon them.

We are not sensible, that any one that you hint at, is in your Debt for many Favours. If you will be pleased to mention his Name, and the Obligation, he is ready to ballance Accounts with you.

As to the Name of your Son, since you insist upon it, we tell you it was your Son Roger, and the Evidence is positive, that he did not ask for a place where the Holy Ghost was call'd God, but a place that proved him to be God : And when the Person produced, the 28th of Matthew the 19th Ver. The 5th of Acts, 3, 4. The 6th of Isaiah, 1, 3, 5, 8, 9, 10. Compared with the 28th of Acts, 15, 26, 27. The 12th of Matthew, 31st Verse.

He made Light of this Proof, and said, It was nothing at all to the Purpose : And since the Publishing your Letter, your Son John hath bid the same Person come and say, That he knew of no Place where the Holy Ghost was called God ; and advised him to read Dr. Clark ; where he said were Two Thousand Places of Scripture to prove that the Father was the only one God ; nor are such like Expressions new and uncommon among your Friends ; and no Wonder it's so among the People, when Mr. Peirce, in the Presence of the Committee, proposed a Question of the same Nature concerning the Deity of the Holy Ghost.

And Mr. Gilling declared to a Minister, as for your Trinity in Unity, I neither does, nor will believe it ; and ask'd Mr. John Chaple, one of his own People, a Question to this Purpose, where he could prove the Holy

Holy Ghost to be God. The like Question hath been put by several of your Followers, in order to stumble the Unwary, and shock their Faith.

Two of your People lately undertook to prove Christ was a Creature: We could mention their Names, and produce positive Proof; but fearing it might do them Prejudice in their Affairs, we forbear it.

There is positive Evidence against Four of your Communicants, that they denied the Holy Ghost to be God at all.

Nor do we mention these things with Pleasure, but with the utmost Concern, and to show that your bringing so many learned Divines, who held only a Relative Subordination in the same Being or Godhead, makes nothing at all for the Defence of those whom yet you would seek to screen, even those that hold Christ to be a Distinct Being from the one Eternal God, and so make him either a Creature, or (at best) but an inferiour or subordinate God; the which is esteemed by us, a certain Sign and Mark of an Arian.

We should have been glad to find, that tho' you had chang'd your Principles, yet you had held fast your Integrity; and now beg you for the future to be free and open, and consistent with your selves in all Places and Company; and when charg'd with your real Sentiments, not to amuse, and (as Mr. Tong says, in his Introduction, Pag. 12.) raise an artificial Cloud of ambiguous Phrases, and so get off for the present, leaving the Complainants under the undeserved Reproach of false Accusation.

We cannot but take notice of the Air, which your wise Men give yourselves: Every thing that is wrote or spoke in opposition to your Opinions, is immediately pronounced weak and trifling, &c.

We think a little more Meekness and Modesty would better become the Mouths and Pens of those that pretend to copy so exactly after the Example of the meek and humble Jesus, and boast so much of taking that Word for their Rule, which says, That in Lowliness of Mind, each should esteem others better than themselves, selves, and that God resisteth the Proud, and giveth Grace to the Humble.

As to the Queries at the Conclusion of your Paper, and which you call a coming to the Point, we shall only answer, that you mistake us if you think we set up for Explainers of Mysteries. We are for leaving secret things with God, when Scripture tells us what a Person in the Trinity is, we will tell you in the mean time, we shall content ourselves with believing according to Scripture, that there are three viz. The Father (Word or) Son, and (Spirit or) Holy Ghost; to whom every thing that is most peculiar and appropriated to the Divine Nature is ascribed and attributed; and therefore, That it is these Three (and not any one of the Three alone,) are the One only living and true God.

This too, is the Doctrine which the Reverend Mr. Tong, and his Bretheren have told the World they are ready to defend against all Opposers, * and to them we refer you. To the same purpose speaks the Reverend Mr. How, in the aforesaid Quotation, p. 12.

We are not willing to go any farther into these great Mysteries, than we have the Light of God's Word to guide us.

'Tis a too curious inquiring into the Secrets of God, that hath been the sad Occasion of all our Troubles.

If you think therefore by your Queries to bring us into any Snare, by an unwarrantable Search into Things which God hath no where revealed, you will find your self mistaken. We think our selves oblig'd in this Case, to attend to the Advice of the Apostle, who bids us to avoid prophane and vain Babblings, and Oppositions of Science falsely so called; which some professing, have erred concerning the Faith.
